Based on the work of Dr Harville Hendrix, creator of Imago Relationship Therapy

*Presented by: Marina Swart,
Counselling Psychologist, Certified Imago Therapist

This two day workshop helps couples to heal the history each brought into the relationship and the history they created together, and to rediscover the joy of being together. The workshop is filled with information and skills that will take the guesswork out of making your relationship work.

It takes your relationship to a place that you only dream of

About the workshop:

It is designed to create a safe and comfortable environment for all participants. The focus is on the relationship with one's partner and couples work either alone or with their partner. Couples are not expected to share anything with the other participants unless they choose to do so during feedback. Confidentiality is respected and preserved throughout the workshop.

It was really powerful and it creates a safe place for everyone involved

You will learn:

- How to create a safe place in which your relationship can blossom and in which your children can grow up.
- How to communicate with each other in an honest, non-defensive way.
- How to become your partner's best friend and healer.
- To understand what triggers your partner's behaviour.
- To understand why you have chosen one another.
- How to heal old relationships and childhood wounds.
- How to eliminate and reduce frustrations.
- How to create fun, romance, intimacy and passion.
